Dear Mr. Mellor,

Albaugh LLC (Company # 045002) is submitting the enclosed Application for Registration. We have determined that this action falls under PRIA Category R318. This end-use product contains 4 EPA registered active ingredients not previously combined in a registered product. We have included the EPA forms required for application to register a new end use product. We have included the product specific guideline studies required for this end use product application.

To assist in reviewing the label, we have provided an attachment to the 8570-1 form which provides the list of cited products and an R318 Reference Table.

Please do not hesitate to contact me directly with any questions (919-740-9895).

Regards,
